University of Winnipeg United Centre for Theological Studies

The United Centre for Theological Studies is committed to excellence in theological education within a liberal arts University. We welcome all those who wish to study theology and we seek to empower leaders for religious and social service by providing a safe and respectful environment for critical reflection that is contextual and global in scope and values social and ecological justice. We are shaped by the historic contributions of the United Church of Canada and its commitment to the social gospel movement, liberation theology, and whole world ecumenism.

Providence Theological Seminary

Providence Theological Seminary has succeeded in establishing a faculty of evangelical scholars and practioners from across the denominational spectrum

(Anglican, Baptist, Mennonite, Free Church, and Pentecostal). The faculty holds without reservation to the Providence Covenant of Faith. With about 200 students Providence is a good sized community of learners and is small enough so faculty know students by name. Providence offers a classic Master of Divinity with the full gamut of biblical languages, systematic theology, and practical ministry training. It also offers innovative programs in counselling, student development, TESOL, and Global Studies as well as one of the largest Doctor of Ministry programs in Canada.

St. John's College

St John's College is a small, Anglican College located on the University of Manitoba campus. Many University of Manitoba courses are offered in St John's College classrooms each year. These courses are open to all University of Manitoba students, and, while College members are not required to take any courses at St John's, they are invited to do so. Faculty of Theology and its programs are presently under review for the next two years.

Henry Budd Training Centre

The Henry Budd College for Ministry offers theological and practical training for ministry with and among First Nations communities. Our threefold aims are: to provide academic and practical education of Native people for Christian Ministry (lay and ordained) primarily, but not exclusively, in the Anglican Church of Canada; to further Christian expression of faith within the traditions of Native culture and language; and to develop material for theological education and study groups in native parishes.

Diploma in Indigenous Anglican Theology:

The University of Emmanuel College, College of Emmanuel and St. Chad, grants the diploma to students who complete ~700 hours of prescribed study, course work, and internship through the Henry Budd College for Ministry in the Diocese of Brandon. The College of Emmanuel and St. Chad, has established the standards and requirements. The Diploma Program is available only through the College of Emmanuel and St. Chad and is granted on its recommendation by Henry Budd College for Ministry.
